Senators and Quakers Battle Nineteen Innings in Fight for Second Place Breaking Major League Record for 1912

MCGRAW GROOMING PENNA. WINNERS

Tries Out Al Demaree, Southern League Star, Who Shows Almost Perfect Control and Scores a Shut Out Against Boston

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—Washington and Philadelphia, battling for second place, broke the major league record for this season when they played nineteen innings this afternoon, the former winning 5 to 4. Two games were to have been played, but the contest lasted a trifle more than four hours and could not have proceeded further on account of gathering darkness.

The visitors scored four runs in the first two innings on five hits, two batteries and fielding errors, and a fielder's choice. After that Plank held them to no runs and six hits for sixteen successive innings.

In the nineteenth, Williams received a base on balls and Johnson beat out a bunt. Williams was forced at third on Moeller's grounder. Foster forced Moeller at second, Barry to Collins. In trying for a double play Collins threw wild and Johnson made the winning run.

Groom pitched the first nine innings for Washington. Twice with bases full, scoring was prevented by double plays and in the seventh with the bases full and one out, the home team scored on an out. Four hits and an error in the ninth enabled Philadelphia to tie the score. Johnson took McGraw's place in the tenth inning, was hit harder than Plank, but brilliant fielding by Foster and McBride prevented scoring.

MCGRAW GROOMING CHAMPIONS

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Manager McGraw began today grooming his men for the world's championship series. Tesreau is being trained particularly for "spitting" pitching against Boston and Mathewson, pitching against Philadelphia. McGraw expects a chance to start one of the big games. Recruits will bear the brunt of the work of the remaining games of the league season, while the veteran players will rest in relays. They are playing just enough to keep in good condition.

It is seldom McGraw discusses the initial work of his young players, but he said today the debut yesterday of Al Demaree, the Southern League star, in the box against Boston, was the finest work he had seen done by a newcomer in twenty years of baseball. It was Demaree's first appearance for the locals and although the game was critical to the extent that winning meant the clinching of the pennant, the youngster had almost perfect control. He struck out nine men, allowed seven hits, two of which were scratches, gave only one base on balls and scored a shut out.

Smith Defends His Attitude Toward Taft

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
SALT LAKE, Sept. 27.—Emphatic disapproval expressed by the democratic leaders of the signed article published by President Smith of the Mormon church advocating the re-election of President Taft, brought from Smith today a denial of any intention of the church authorities to interfere with politics. Smith said the article was intended merely as an expression of his personal views, and that as an American citizen he considered himself as much entitled to express his personal views as any official of any church or persons or his critics.

WILL DEMAND RIGHT BALLOT DESIGNATION

Taft State Committee in California Takes Step Against Progressives.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Seven attorneys representing the Taft state committee today decided to file before the state supreme court a petition for a writ of mandamus directed against Secretary of State Jordan requiring him to place the Taft nominees for presidential electors on the November ballot under the heading of republican and to refuse the designation of "republican" to nominees selected by the progressive majority in the state convention. The petition will be filed Monday or Tuesday.

The Taft committee will precipitate a three-cornered fight, involving the form of ballot. The progressives claim the right to the designation of their electors as republican. Jordan has prepared a sample ballot, regarding which he will ask Attorney General Webb for an opinion tomorrow, which provides for both lists of nominees, one under the heading "republicans for Taft" and the other "republicans for Roosevelt." The state board of control temporarily blocked Jordan's plan yesterday by refusing his requisition for paper for the dummy ballots, ruling that their legality first must be established by the attorney general. Jordan printed the ballots at his own expense and will submit them tomorrow.

TEDDY DID AN ILLEGAL THING

So Says Wilson in Referring to Former President's Act in Permitting the United States Steel to Purchase Tennessee Corporation

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Governor Wilson addressed a big political meeting here today and declared that former President Roosevelt had done an "illegal thing in order to build up irresistible power" in permitting the purchase by the United States Steel of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company. "Do you wonder Roosevelt thinks the trust is inviolable?" he declared, "he never found any way of checking them, and he thought it inevitable that the steel corporation should buy the Tennessee corporation, and that the president should consent to illegal things in order to build up irresistible power. If it is inevitable that the government should yield to these powers, the sooner we know about it, the better."

The governor declared that even if Roosevelt is elected, he will have no "third party congress" behind him.

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 27.—"Hello Woody, old boy," "governor" and "old boy" were among the greetings received by the democratic standard bearer in scores of places he visited during his campaign in New England. He says he likes it as it makes him feel as if he had "arrived." Throughout the day as the nominee made the journey from Boston to this city he passed crowded stations and cheering and clamoring for buttons. In his speech at Williamantic, the governor said:

"As I stop at this particular place, I cannot but think of the absentee landlords who own the thread of industry and do not live here, because of course, one of the difficulties with our whole political arrangement in the United States is that people who are not here have anything to do with us, but stand off at a distance and find it very difficult indeed to judge actual conditions."

UNWRITTEN LAW IS APPLIED TO GENERAL VEGA

Is Killed While Being Taken Overland Under Federal Guard From Cananea to Hermosillo to Stand Trial

IS SHOT WHILE TRYING TO ESCAPE

Federal Government Will Again Ask Permission to Transport Their Troops Through United States to Rebels' Rendezvous

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
DOUGLAS, Sept. 27.—"La Ley Fura," the unwritten law developed by Mexican outlaws and revolutionists, claimed General Alvaro Vega, who left Cananea overland last Saturday under a guard of six soldiers for Hermosillo, according to word reaching here today.

"Shot while trying to escape," was the official report. Vega was arrested at Naco sometime ago on a charge of inciting Yaqui to rebellion, and of attempting to bribe the federal commander of a small Sonora town to join the rebels.

Four hundred rebels entered the town of Bocachi, 20 miles west of Naco yesterday, and took what had been left after two previous raids. A band of one hundred rebels looted the Gabarda ranch, 25 miles southwest of Douglas, and stole all the horses and provisions. It is also reported they took with them two Mexican women employed on the ranch.

TO TRANSPORT TROOPS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 27.—Congress has granted Mexico's request to again ask the United States for permission to transport troops through American territory today. If permission is granted at Washington, the troops of General Tracy Aubert, now at Ojinaga will be transported, part of them over the Southern Pacific, entering Mexico at Del Rio, Texas, and the remainder will be sent to Ciudad Juarez, to co-operate with Blanquet, who is in command at Sabinas.

Orozco's army is now among the haciendas near Lababia and Piedra Blanca and in a range of hills known as the Sierra Burro, which offer excellent opportunities for defense. The government wishes to send three columns against Orozco.

TUCSON, Sept. 27.—A. D. Page, one of the owners of mining property on the Yaqui river, went to the county jail today to refute the statement of Emilio Campa that he never molested or attempted to kill Americans. Page charged Campa with looting and destroying his camp on August 29 and threatening to kill him. Only the pleas of his wife saved him, says Page.

After Campa had looted his home, Page says, the rebels tore his wife's silk dresses into strips and rode away with the strips decorating the tails of their horses. Campa wanted to shake hands with Page but the latter angrily refused.

THIRTEEN BOYS MISSING

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 27.—A special from El Paso says that Demar Brown, who has been held by the rebels near Casas Grandes, has been released according to O. Lust, who arrived at El Paso from the Chihuahua colonies. Lust says thirteen boys who went to Pachuca and Garica, Chihuahua colonies, to gather up what they could of the colonists' property, are still missing. Much uneasiness is felt for their safety.

SOLDIERS DANCE WITH REBELS

JUAREZ, Sept. 27.—According to a report brought here today by Park Look, federal and rebel soldiers dance together in the same hall at Casas Grandes. There seems to be no effort on the part of the federals to check rebels' raids. Look says the rebels raided his ranch, and his Mexican manager was taken off and held for ransom.

ISOLATES MEXICAN INTERIOR

JUAREZ, Sept. 27.—Three bridges were burned today on the Mexican Northwestern railroad running southwest of Juarez. With the longest trestle on the line burned a few days ago the destruction of today shuts off this port of entry from any communication with the interior of Mexico.

SIGNATURES ARE SECURED

However There Is Doubt About Abolition of Death Penalty Measure Being Legal.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—The proposed initiative measure for the abolition of the death penalty in California today, reached a point where a sufficient number of signatures had been filed at the secretary of state's office to assure it a place upon the ballot, but there is still doubt that the measure will go before the people at the 1914 general elections, because the last supplementary petitions did not reach the state secretary's office before the date set by law.

JUDGE NAVE PASSES AWAY

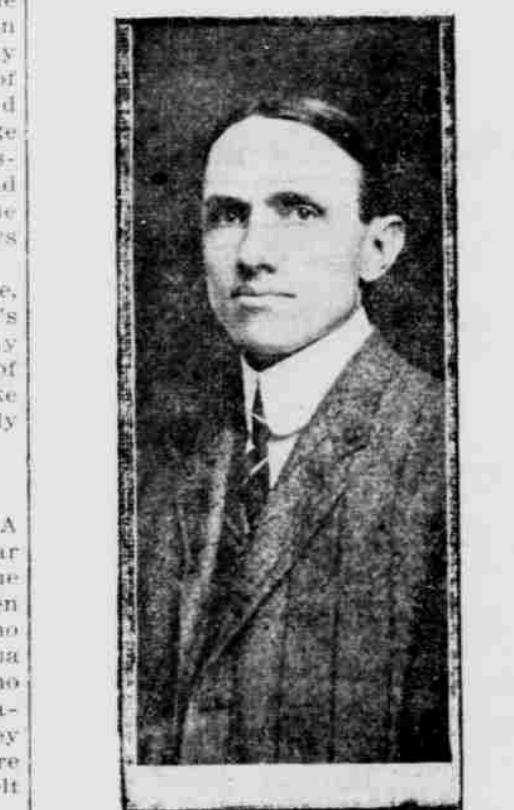

He Succumbed Yesterday at Globe to the White Plague From Which He Fled to Arizona Twelve Years Ago

Judge Frederick S. Nave died yesterday at Globe of tuberculosis of which he had been a sufferer for many years and which brought him to Arizona about a dozen years ago.

For a long time the broods of the disease were apparently arrested but a year or more ago there was a decided falling of his health. He was last in Phoenix early in June when he appeared before the supreme court. Immediately after he went to California for the summer but much of the time he was there he was confined to his bed by illness.

Early in this month there was an apparent improvement of his condition and he returned to Globe to resume the practice of law. But he quickly grew worse and sank steadily to the end.

Judge Nave leaves beside his wife two children, Margery aged ten and Frederick S. aged seven. Judge Nave was a gentleman of scholarship and the highest ideals which he always lived up to. He was a force for morality and good in every community in which he had lived.

He was a son of Chaplain Orlando J. Nave and was born at Lewis Center, O., thirty-nine years ago. He was graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University and afterward completed the law course at the Northwestern University. He was married in 1901 at Nogales to Miss Elise W. Jones who had been instructor in Greek and Latin at the Northwestern University academy.

The first public service of Judge Nave in Arizona was as secretary of the code commission which revised the laws of 1901. During a part of that service he was district attorney of Santa Cruz county.

In 1902 he was appointed United States attorney for Arizona and he held that office until his appointment as a member of the supreme court of the territory and judge of the fifth district.

He resigned that office more than two years ago to devote himself to the practice of law which he followed with success.

On the retirement of Judge John H. Campbell from the bench last February Judge Nave formed a partnership with him with offices in Globe and Tucson.

LAND BOARD AND LEESEES HOLD SESSION

Committee From School Land Settlers Meets With State Commission and Talks Over Present Difficulty

PERFECTLY FRANK CORDIALLY FRIENDLY

It Afternoon Talk in Which Commission Assures Committee of Desire to Assist; Will Offer Modified Application Today

At a cordially frank and perfectly friendly meeting held between the committee appointed some time since by the school land lessees association and the state land commission, yesterday afternoon at the state house in the office of the land commission, the supposed grievances of the school land lessees with the present policy of the land commission were gone over and quickly and reasonably discussed. From the time the two committees got together until the time of the adjournment of the session, some two and a half hours it was plainly seen that both sides were at the meeting in a spirit of fairness and with no other disposition than to arrive at a perfect

Chairman Mulford Winsor of the land commission together with commissioner W. A. Moody, represented that side while the committee of the lessees was composed of John R. Bradshaw, Henry Mitchell, Messrs. Lissenby of Mesa, Young and Dwight B. Heard. The conference lasted a matter of two hours.

The committee took up in detail the objections to the present form of the application for a permit to stay on the school lands of the state and stated the objections of the farmer and settlers were listened to by the commissioner after which Chairman Winsor again went over them in detail and after stating that the commission had absolutely no intention whatever to subject the settlers and farmers to any hardships. He therefore proposed that the commission submit at a meeting to be held this morning in the water users building of a modified form of application which would mitigate the unpleasant portions of the present form.

This was agreed to and the meeting this morning will take place about 10 o'clock with a delegate from each school section present to confer with the committee and the commission. Assistant Attorney General Carpenter was present at the meeting yesterday and lent his legal knowledge and diplomatic ability to assist in straightening out the misunderstanding. Owing to the fact that Judge Carpenter is a state officer it was impossible for him to accept a retainer to represent any one at variance with the state, but as soon as he returned and was consulted about the matter he immediately consented to be present at the meeting and do all in his power to arrive at a clear understanding of the law, and to remove the difficulties that were in the minds of the farmers and settlers in the valley.

When the whole thing had been thoroughly discussed it was found that neither of the two sides were very far apart on the construction that is to be placed upon the law, and that only a very slight difference existed as to the opinion as to how the law should be administered, and it is thought that with the submission this morning of the modified form of application even the slight difference will be dissipated and that all will settle down to work out the final solution of the state land problem with the best interests of the entire state at heart, and with no disposition on the part of either side to do anything badly about the situation.

At the present time the school lands in Maricopa county as in other portions of the state are in exactly the same status as they were prior to the coming of statehood. The settlers are upon that land, and are remanding many of them by permission obtained before from the county boards of supervisors. There are still others who have not yet signed the applications but signed applications are continually being received at the land commission office which in the minds of those interested seems to indicate that all the settlers and farmers will have their application on file before the lapse of many months.

In the meantime the commission is going ahead in other portions of the state and appraising the value of the improvements on school lands, not having yet made any appraisals in the Salt River valley, all of which they are commanded to do in the language of the statutes passed at the recent legislature.

However the outcome of the meeting yesterday was that all agreed to work more heartily for a bigger, better Arizona, to do all that could be done ethically as individuals or officials to increase the influx of population to the state, to make the farming communities better, and the communities wealthier because of their efforts.

ROOSEVELT PLEADING THE PEOPLES CAUSE

Makes Statement at New Orleans Intended to Indicate Unselfishness.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27.—"I am less engaged in pleading my cause than the pleading of yours," said Colonel Roosevelt today before an enthusiastic crowd at the winter garden. The demonstration lasted several minutes. He asserted that artificial barriers had separated the south from its own interests and cited as an illustration the chief opposition to the Panama canal came from the southern senators who fought ratification of the treaty.

Referring to the Mississippi floods he said, no move was made to the democratic house of representatives to prevent a repetition of the disaster. He said he favored the utilization of the Panama canal plant for improving the waterways of the Mississippi valley.

"If I were elected president," he said, "I would fight the thing through. I would get our people to authorize it and then bring Goethals from Panama and put him in charge of it."

BLACK TO FACE THE GRAND JURY

Notwithstanding He Has Turned Over Securities District Attorney Will Prosecute Because of the Checks He Issued

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
PALO ALTO, Sept. 27.—State Senator Marshall Black, secretary of the Palo Alto Building and Loan association, who has admitted a shortage of $100,000, but turned over property to secure it, must face a grand jury investigation. This announcement was made here today by A. M. Free, district attorney of Santa Clara county. Free said he would prosecute Black on a charge of having issued checks on the bank of Palo Alto when he knew there were no funds with which they could be paid.

"I have five checks which were returned dishonored by the bank," said Free. "The latest was for $1500 payable to Dr. Elliott, a Dentist of Mayfield. Another for $700 was issued to Mabel C. Brol, a nurse of San Francisco."

It developed today, according to District Attorney Free, that the shortage in funds in the bank extend over a period of two years. They were hid, he alleged, by the use of false securities, which were represented to the board of directors as of adequate value.

MILL OWNERS SAY WILL CLOSE DOWN

State Militia Is Called Out in Augusta to Subdue Rioting Street Car Men and Fires Upon Angry Crowd

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
LAWRENCE, Sept. 27.—Twelve thousand textile operatives are idle as the result of the strike called by the Industrial Workers of the World, to show sympathy for Joseph J. Eitor and Arturo Giovannetti, leaders of the organization, and as a protest against their trial in connection with the killing of Anna Lopizzo during the strike last winter. The mill owners are said to be prepared to close down their plants in the event of further walkouts, or if disorder results. It is estimated that half of the workers are out and as a result of closing their departments or intimidation.

Leaders of the I. W. W. renewed the assertion tonight that the strike is without sanction. At a meeting under their auspices held tonight, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, New York, urged the operatives to return to the mills tomorrow and to await the call of the leaders for a strike.

MILITIA OUT IN GEORGIA

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 27.—Three persons were wounded, one fatally, when members of the state militia fired upon street car strikers and sympathizers late today. The militia was ordered out on account of rumors of the contemplated attack on the power house. Governor Brown late tonight proclaimed the city to be in a state of insurrection and ordered the immediate enforcement of martial law.

Guardsmen when they arrived at the scene hastily established a dead line around the power plant. Alfred Dorn was killed when he and Ben Baker attempted to pass the line in a buggy. Dorn was shot to pieces. Baker was shot, but not dangerously wounded. Robert Christie attempted to drive through the lines in an automobile and it is said did not hear the sentry's challenge. He had gone but a few feet when he was shot through the lungs and it at the hospital where it is said he cannot live. Charles Wilson, wife and child, in an automobile were fired upon but escaped unhurt.

After a mass meeting tonight at which resolutions were adopted asking Governor Brown to withdraw the troops, two large mobs of striking street carmen and sympathizers were prevented from attacking the local powerhouse plant by the impassioned pleas of the strike leaders.
